Faculty of the VCA and Music

The Faculty of the VCA and Music is one of Australia's leading institutions for education and training in the visual and performing arts, where creative people from a diverse range of cultures gain the skills, inspiration and confidence to thrive in a competitive environment.

The Faculty's Southbank campus combines the facilities of six disciplines and two centres dedicated to educating and training artists in the following art forms: art, dance, drama, film and television, music and production.

The Faculty enjoys wide recognition among the international arts community. It is a member of the European League of Institutes of the Arts (ELIA); the International Council of Fine Arts Deans (ICFAD); the International Association of Film and Television Schools (CILECT); the Australian Council of University Art and Design Schools (ACUADS) and is an international affiliate of the Association of Independent Colleges of Art and Design (AICAD).

Dance

Dance offers a vibrant and stimulating atmosphere where students are prepared for the demands and challenges of careers in dance. The Dance School develops strong technicians and is dedicated to the creative and artistic growth of each student. The emphasis is on performance, choreographic practice and research, so that graduates may become performers, choreographers, collaborators, teachers and artistic leaders in local, national and international dance communities. The Dance School attracts highly motivated, disciplined and creative dancers who are interested in shaping the future of the profession.

Course

Bachelor of Dance (Study Abroad) – CRICOS code: 008797D

Specialisation

Dance offers specialisations in:

- Ballet and Contemporary Dance
